Mr. Barton,

I am part of Mr. Delfgauw's Legal Team and I will be your point of contact going forward. He received an email from you today, the other emails were recently found in spam.

- Please use this email going forward legal@apello.net.

- Which email would you be using going forward?

- You have sent us emails from multiple emails and they get lost in spam. We would like you to please follow the letter of the law, Mr. Delfgauw would need to be personally served on all documentation. We will not accept anything via email.

We only have one other case going on right now, which is the state case beyond the current case, in which we are countersuing you on. If you're going to withdraw that and go through the federal courts, Mr. Delfgauw will need to be re-served.

Next issue, Will you be defending yourself in our cases against you? We have four cases that will be filed. 3 of them you can defend yourself, 2 are in Washington, one in Florida. The fourth is a class action suit from your previous TCPA cases that we are collaborating with.

Sincerely,
