Sourced from the fertile volcanic soils of Mauritius, this singular single-cask release—curated by La Maison & Velier from barrel #MC13PA01—showcases the magnificent heights of extended maturation in the Mascarene Islands. Column-distilled in 2013 from premium island molasses, the rum spent 12 patient years maturing in a seasoned ex-rum cask, a deliberate cooperage choice that preserves the distillate's authentic DNA while fostering profound oxidative complexity. An uncompromised, contemplative pour that speaks directly to collectors who appreciate deep provenance and textural restraint.

TASTING NOTES

Nose: Lush with distinct aromatic baking spices, highlighting mace, clove, and nutmeg.

Palate: Opens with rich, spiced orchard fruit cobbler (baked apple skin, poached pear, and ripe stone fruit) before taking a sharp left turn into savory leather, black licorice, and tangy passion fruit.

Finish: Balanced and seductive, transitioning seamlessly from pastry-spice warmth into drying leather and concentrated fruit.
