Breaking Changes

- Review Text: The text saved to review for events occurring in the Aiphone system has changed in this version to make the important information more visible. If using the Review Text of Review generated by the Aiphone integration for a trigger or filter, these may cease to work. It is recommended to consider replacing any triggers using the Text field of the Review to use the Category field instead. Where this is not possible, it may be necessary to update trigger configuration.

Feature Updates

- Events: The primary intercom station can now be set to either the source or destination station for some event types. This allows the Intercom Point that is associated with the generated Review Record in Integriti v19 to be specified.
